

Brilliant Tutoring Programme 2022-23

The Brilliant Tutoring Programme aims to help those whose education has been most impacted by the pandemic, raising attainment in English, Maths and Science.

We're looking for enthusiastic PhDs and ECRs to support this national effort, by tutoring pupils on key curriculum content to help them access the future they deserve.

To be a tutor with us, you must:

- Be a PhD researcher or hold a doctorate
- Have a subject specialism that would allow you to teach English, Maths, Biology, Chemistry or Physics (if your research is outside of these key curriculum areas you need a relevant undergraduate degree)
- Commit to at least 30 hours of teaching over a term or half term
- Provide pupils with written feedback
- Complete Brilliant Club training

Opportunity for PhD and early career Researchers

Researcher development benefits

As one of our tutors, you will develop:

- Valuable teaching experience
- Receive expert training and support
- Support pupils from disadvantaged backgrounds catch up lost learning due to Covid-19
- Earn £570 per placement (plus £75 London weighting)
- Teach small groups of 4 pupils at a time

A recent survey of researchers showed 85% of tutors reporting that “working as a tutor has boosted their employability skills”

Course subjects

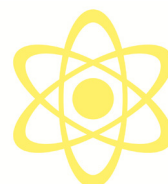

English

Maths

Biology

Physics

Chemistry

Key stage 3 and 4

Key stage 4 only

Application next steps

Application form

Online Assessment Centre

Submit availability

Feedback

Training and placement

Click here to apply.

If you have any queries about applying to work as a Brilliant Club tutor, please send us an email at apply@thebrilliantclub.org.

